St. Stephen Catholic Secondary School
Student Participant Eligibility Screening
Due May 11th, 2012

Student: In order to confirm your eligibility to participate in extra-curricular activities at St. Stephen's you are required to provide evidence of your good standing. Complete the reverse of this form and submit it to the staff advisor or coach prior to try-outs/auditions/start-up of the desired extra-curricular activity. Be sure to plan enough time to meet with your teachers and your vice-principal in order to meet your screening deadline.

Parents/Guardians: All student participation in extra-curricular activities is dependant on the student's current standing. Any student in good standing is eligible to try-out/audition/begin an extra-curricular activity. Students who are not able to or do not provide proof of good standing will not be permitted to participate.

Teachers: Before a student may try-out/audition/begin any extra-curricular activity, they must provide proof of their status as a student in good standing. Your input in determining a participant's eligibility is invaluable. Please complete the information requested: indicating any concerns you may have at this time should result in fewer disappointments later. Our goal is to avoid having to remove a student once the season/activity has begun.

Good Standing: A student is deemed to be in good standing when she/he:

- demonstrates regular, punctual attendance to all classes
- is polite and respectful to all staff and other students
- completes and submits all assigned work on time and to the best of her/his ability (no specific level of achievement is required)
- seeks assistance and attends extra help sessions offered/available when required
- serves any assigned detentions or consequences promptly
- works co-operatively to uphold the positive reputation of St. Stephen's in the community
- has paid all applicable fees and returned any outstanding materials

Teams, clubs, activities and events can only be successful when all members can be counted on to uphold their responsibility to the group; it is for this reason that this screening process has been put in place.
